

Steven Folmar, PhD, a Founding Member, ICDR and a CFI Expert

Dr. Steven Folmar has served as a founding Board member of the ICDR since 2009 and also served as a CFI Expert. Dr. Folmar is an assistant Professor at the Department of Anthropology in Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem. He has written several articles and done researches on Dalit Identity and Rights.

Publications—Recent Articles and Book Chapters:

- 2013 Folmar S. Problems of Identity: Hill Dalits and Nepal's Nationalist Project. In M Lawoti and S Hangen, eds., Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict: Mobilization of National, Linguistic, Caste, Religious and Regional Identities in Nepal, Routledge .
- 2009 Folmar S. "You are the Clever One": a semantic contest in a transient host/tourist community in Nepal. Southeastern Review of Asian Studies: 30:81-96.
- 2009 Folmar S, G Palmes. Cross-cultural psychiatry in the field: collaborating with anthropology. Journal of the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry 48(9)873-876.
- 2009 Folmar S. Identity politics among Dalits in Nepal. Himalaya: 27:41-53.

Publications—Books

- 2008 P K Pradhan, D Wastl-Walter and S Folmar, eds. Public Policy and Local Development: Opportunities and Challenges, IGU, Kathmandu. Forthcoming.

Grants

- 2012 Oppression and mental health in Nepal. National Science Foundation. 2 years beginning August 15, 2012. $159,937.
- 2012 Conversion to Christianity in Nepal. Archie Fund. 6 months beginning May 1, 2012. $3,700.